- Apparent Comfort as of May

A few notable examples evidencing comfort and familiarity leading up to the relevant timeframe. Other examples could be located if needed.

- o 4/27/18 texts: Caryn texted me while on A/L on the day before her wedding to share running into Judges Mullen and Cayer separately and introducing them to her mother. Shows she felt comfortable and friendly with me at the time.
- o 4/30/18 texts: Caryn texts her wedding photos and statement to Tony and me, showing familiarity and comfort. Along the same lines, I recall that she also listed me along with her team leader as who to contact if something came up while she was gone. She did that without asking, just assuming I would cover for her. I did not save this email, but recall it because I thought it was funny, and at the same time was glad that she felt she could count on me.
